WJPCHS-16-0221.R2: Risk factors for mortality in Reoperations for Pediatric and Congenital Heart surgery in a developing country

Dear Dr. Villa Hincapié,

It is a pleasure to accept your above-referenced manuscript for publication in the World Journal for Pediatric and Congenital Heart Surgery. Thank you for being responsive to reviewer comments.

Once we have verified that the format of all files meet submission guidelines, the manuscript will be forwarded to the Publisher. You will be receiving a PDF galley via email from SAGE Publications. The timely proofing and return of the galley is essential in maintaining our rapid publication schedule. If you have any questions, please contact the Editorial Office at WJPCHS@gmail.com or 302-326-9313.

Thank you for your fine contribution to the World Journal for Pediatric and Congenital Heart Surgery. We look forward to your continued contributions to the Journal.

Sincerely,

Marshall L. Jacobs, M.D., Editor
